

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Orrick, chairman of the select committee, made an unfavorable report upon the petition of William Jessop and others, citizens of Baltimore county, praying for an additional appropriation of eight hundred dollars to complete the bridge at Tyson's mill, in said county,

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, and concurred in.

Mr. Kerr, cha'n. of the select committee, made a favorable report upon the bill from the senate, entitled, an act relating to the record of the proceedings of the convention which established the Declaration of Rights and the Constitution and Form of Government of this State,

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Giles, from the committee on grievances and courts of justice, made an unfavorable report upon the bill reported by Mr. Risteau, entitled, an act to authorise the clerk of Baltimore county court to record a deed therein mentioned,

Which was read the first time and ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Bowie, (seconded by two other members that voted in the majority,) moved to reconsider the vote of the house of yesterday, upon the report submitted by Mr. Alexander, chairman of the committee on ways and means, on the 8th inst. upon the order of the house, to enquire whether the State is bound in law or equity, by any subscription on her behalf, to the capital stock of any of the internal improvement companies mentioned in the act of May session, 1836, chap. 395, made under color of the provisions thereof, and whether the General Assembly can lawfully repeal or modify the provisions of that act,

Pending this motion, the speaker announced that the hour had arrived for taking up the order of the day, being the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act, entitled, an act to amend the Constitution and Form of Government of the State of Maryland, passed at December session 1836, ch. 197;

On motion of Mr. Brown, the house was called;

Mr. Carpenter moved that the house suspend any further proceedings in the call, and proceed to the consideration of said bill,

Resolved in the affirmative.

The said bill was then read the second time, and the question put, shall the said bill pass,

Resolved in the affirmative.

On motion of Mr. Roberts,
